LUKE REYNOLDS

Luke Reynolds Hairdressing is located in the hub of New Farm, Brisbane. A small boutique salon with a warm and inviting Parisian feel, it prides itself on the belief that the salon and its team members are of the highest standard and quality. This season, Luke Reynolds recommends light colours, with cooler tones and hues. Shapes will be strong and quite constructed in the mid lengths, with shorter styles sporting lots of texture. For those with long locks, he suggests soft beachy waves will emphasise and represent feminine beauty.
